SUMMARY

25X1

Marina Gorka Army Barracks and Depot
[redacted] is located on the east side of Marina Gorka (53-30N 028-10E) (Figure 1). A spur from the Marina Gorka-Osipovich rail line serves the installation, and a primary road provides access to Marina Gorka. A military training area (TA-1) is located immediately north and east, and a moving-target tank firing range (TA-2) is located 4 kilometers (km) southwest.

The installation (Figures 2 and 3) covers approximately 420 acres and includes seven administrative buildings, 19 support buildings, 18 multistory barracks, 20 dependents quarters, 23 storage buildings, 24 vehicle/equipment maintenance buildings, one possible vehicle shed, and three unidentified buildings.

Other facilities include an athletic field, three small arms firing ranges, a possible POL storage area, and a secured area containing two unidentified objects.

The area was covered by [redacted] TALENT photography and [redacted] KEYHOLE missions [redacted] Comparative analysis reveals the same general level of usage. The only significant change is the completion [redacted] of eight barracks which were observed under construction [redacted]
